Wharf No. 2 Negotiations To End Soon

Approval of plans and specifications for municipal wharf No. 2 on the inner harbor is expected to be made by the city council at its weekly meeting next Monday night.

This was indicated at the council meeting last night when City Attorney D. J. Hall reported that negotiations with the Ellis Landing and Dock company for the rights-of-way over Tenth street to the new wharf are expected to be completed by that time.

The state convention of realtors at Fresno on October 6, proved to be the consuming topic at the meeting and banquet of the Contra Costa Board of Realtors at the Don O'Sweats at 7 o'clock last evening.

Already twelve realtors of this county have made reservations to join the caravan starting from Oakland, leaving San Pablo and Barrett avenues at 8 a. m. on October 6. Jack Mulvaney of Alameda will be Colonel and President A. L. Paulsen, of Richmond, Lieutenant of the Oakland caravan.

NEW SERIAL TO START THURSDAY

When a story passes the rigid test of the motion picture producer you can almost bet your last pair of reading glasses that it is worth while. That's just the kind of a story THE RECORD-HERALD has secured for its readers in "The Wife Who Wasn't Wanted."

To tell you all about the story would not be fair, but it is the story of a Mother's sacrifice, from the pen of Gertrude S. de Wentworth-James. "Nuf Sed." Just one more word however. When Warner Bros. were looking for a vehicle for one of their most prominent and appealing actresses, Irene Rich, "The Wife Who Wasn't Wanted" was selected for her.

It's a good story, well told and the first installment will appear in the Thursday morning issue.

Marie Macdonald Jensen, secretary of the Richmond Merchants' association, attended the convention as a delegate from the local club. She was joined Saturday by a group of local members of the club, who motored back from San Jose following the session.

The closing session on Saturday night when the delegates in attendance at the convention were the guests of the service clubs at San Jose was described as being one of the outstanding events of the week by those who attended. Another event of interest at the convention, according to Miss Jensen, was the tour through the Santa Clara Valley.

Hollywood has been selected for the next convention of the federation.

Miss Jensen states that the convention was most successful from every standpoint and that a number of interesting and beneficial undertakings are to be taken up by the various clubs during the next year.

BOARD BACKS SCHOOL BONDS

At its meeting last night the high school board of Richmond, decided to outline to the voters of the city by means of a letter sound reasons why the proposed bond issue for a new high school should be carried.

A great amount of study has been put into the matter of the bonds and the board is firmly convinced that a new building is necessary. Superintendent of Schools W. T. Helms will prepare the letter, incorporating the following important points:

1. The necessity of the bonds will be shown by the overcrowded conditions of the present school with its inadequate facilities. It will be pointed out that if Richmond is to keep pace with neighboring cities in the matter of industries, adequate schools must be provided to take care of children of families coming here to work.

2. The amount asked in the bonds is the lowest possible to take care of needed work.

3. The cost will be comparatively low in the long run. Whether or not the bonds are voted additions will have to be made to the school and provisions for such additions will be made in the budget. Whereas, if the new building is erected certain items will be "cut from the budget. It is estimated that the average cost per taxpayer will not be more than $2.

All members of the board were at the meeting for the discussion of the bonds. The members of the board are W. B. Mason, president; C. C. Olney, J. P. Strom, Aubrey Wilson and E. M. Downer. Superintendent Helms was also present.

CLOCKS RULE ALL FORD ACTIVITIES

In every great industry the element of time plays a most important part, but it would be difficult to find any instruction where it requires such close attention as in the Ford organization which not only keeps one watch-maker continually at work, but, in addition keeps a corps of clock men busy seeing that some hundreds of clocks tick the time to the second.

This element of time radiates into every division of the Ford industry, regulating the hour when lumber reaches the mills, when coal is loaded, when the ore reaches the blast furnaces, when molten metal is poured, when motor cars are completed, when Ford trains move, Ford ships sail, Ford airplanes wing their way into space and when Ford employees come to work and quit.

Today a Ford ship, sailing for home after carrying the name of Ford across the Atlantic to European ports for the first time, is proceeding on its way with clocks that were checked and regulated in the Ford engineering laboratories at Dearborn, Mich., where precision in everything is the watchword. Another Ford ship, plying the Atlantic coast, likewise carries clocks regulated in these laboratories, the same as the giant Ford steel freighters which ply the Great Lakes carrying coal and iron ore.

It is the business of a watchmaker, whose workshop is in a bright little room at the Dearborn laboratories, to see that the ships' clocks are in perfect time. He also keeps check on the watches used by train men on the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroad, the Ford railway, and this alone is an important job.

Incidentally, the D. T. & I. is the only railroad in America which supplies watches to its trainmen. Some 300 watches are constantly in use, with fifty "loaners" in the watchmaker's room ready to go out whenever the occasion requires. No employee of the railroad is permitted to either set or attempt to regulate the watch he carries. Anytimepiece that is of standard time even a minute must be turned in for a "loaner" until it is repaired and regulated.

Four chronometers and two master clocks, checked daily by radio, are standards used for regulating all railroad watches and ships' clocks.

In the great Highland Park and River Rouge plants of the Ford Motor company more than 100,000 employees register in and out every day. Their time is checked on cards by more than 420 clocks and a special staff of men is maintained to see that every clock registers the correct time day in and day out, serving impartially the workers and the company alike in the great scheme of manufacture, for it is essential, in order to maintain proper production costs and efficiency throughout the organization, that everything proceeds in exact order and upon the minute so that people throughout the world who are using and desire Ford products may be served.

DETROIT HAS ITS TROUBLES

Detroit is not having so comfortable a time with municipal ownership and operation of its transit system. Mayor Smith found it necessary to dismiss the general manager of the system, and now an audit of the accounts of the property has been made. This disproves the rosy reports of the last few years and indicates an actual deficit of more than $3,185,000. Reserves were created on paper, the auditor reports, and only $1,342,000 is available—on paper—to meet damage claims, now pending in court or adjudicated, of $7,210,000. Notes have been issued against a loan of $5,000,000 authorized for extension of the service, which if paid off when the loan is issued will leave only $928,000, and against this again there is work under way amounting to $692,000. Apparently the only ray of light in the situation for Detroit is the fact that May, standing alone, will show a profit of $400—not a very large margin on which to build hopes of solvent management.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

If you ran a hotel in which three or four of your guests had commandeered the best rooms and refused to pay rent, that would be extraterritoriality.

When we consider the sort of people the grade crossings abolish, we almost question the wisdom of abolishing the grade crossings.

Aforetime, the young intelligentsia who now murder and plan "perfect crimes" to get thrills, worked off their fits by singing "Sweet Adeline" till the barkeepers threw 'em out.

Hay crop is put at almost a billion bales. Wish you could burn the stuff in a flivver.

And over a billion pounds of tobacco will be grown this year. Put that in your pipe and smoke it.

National budget for next year is put at $3,080,000,000. It's those little naughts that count.

Lightweight Tweed Is the Favorite
Material for Schoolgirls' Frocks.

WHEN the lingerie blouse or 'shirt waist' was the conventional day costume of most young women in school and college they usually felt that they simply couldn't wear "wool next their skins." There are women still—through long familiarity with washable blouses and frocks of georgette and other lighter material—who became quite annoyed at the mere thought of having to wear anything woolly next their skins. And many men are quite as sensitive skinned, because they have become accustomed to the layer of cotton shirts, twill skin and coat.

But the young schoolgirl of today seems to have no such prejudices. She has worn wool bathing suits next her skin and wool jersey frocks in her childhood. She may even have worn wool sleeping garments in her nursery days, in winter.

So now when the shops offer school frocks made of tweed—long-sleeved and sometimes high-necked—the younger generation chooses these for their school frocks with apparent eagerness. True these tweeds are very soft and pliant—but they are wool none the less. The sketch shows one of these new frocks, this one made of a lovely English tweed of rich dark green. And, of course, it is made with long sleeves; for long sleeves seem to have become established for day wear this autumn.

A considerable number of private schools of the country have established uniform costumes for their students. There is much to be said for and something to be said against such a regime. But whether you like the school uniform or not, you must agree that it has had very beneficial influence on the manner in which schoolgirls generally are dressed. When it is seen that girls of wealth attending some of the smartest and best-rated schools of the land wear blue serge frocks of the simplest description and wouldn't dream of appearing wearing costly furs or elaborately trimmed hats, then the simpler sort of school clothes are immediately stamped with a certain cachet of approval.

A frock with coat to match is often a wise investment for the young girl in school, and ready-made ensembles of this description are now to be had at a not exorbitant price. To be sure the coat will normally outlast the frock, but it can be used as a servicable top-coat with other frocks.

A day frock suitable for school or college girl is made of dark green tweed with black tie. The neckline is detachable.

SMART NEW HANDKERCHIEFS

THERE are some exceedingly attractive handkerchiefs of colored linen, finished with a narrow hem, stitched hem, that have corners in black and white cross-stitch worked in heavy cotton thread. These handkerchiefs are usually effective. Yet the work is quite coarse and could easily be done in a short time at home. Just buy a good quality hem-stitched pink or blue or green or yellow handkerchief, and go to work with four strands of black and white darning cotton and make a butterfly, or a conventionalized basket in the corner—so far in the corner that part of the design touches the hem.

White linen handkerchiefs have wide, cut-out black linen hems, with colored embroidery all along the black hem. These are striking in effect and quite attractive.

Silk handkerchiefs of the softest fabric are made with inch-wide finely-pleated ruffles around the edge. The ruffle is finished with a fine picot stitch.

HANDKERCHIEFS FOR FAVORS

Handkerchiefs are sold in many of the shops in the most attractive forms. Sometimes they are folded into lovely roses. Sometimes several of them are used to make an old-fashioned nosegay. Sometimes half a dozen are used to dress little dolls in quaint peasant costumes or in the costume of nursery favorites. There are handkerchiefs folded over wire handles covered with ribbon to look like closed umbrellas. These handkerchiefs make most attractive favors for a luncheon or little prizes for a card party.

"The Wife Who Wasn't Wanted"

BY S. GERTRUDE DE WENTWORTH-JAMES

Tense moments that only the pen of S. Gertrude De Wentworth James could describe, action that fairly carries you along even against your will, life as it really is—that is the type of story which the RECORD-HERALD will offer to its readers in "The Wife Who Wasn't Wanted," beginning in the Thursday morning issue.

It's a story so well told that the movie producers have pounced upon it and Warner Brothers have starred Irene Rich in the picture with the same name.

You can't afford to miss this story.

OLD, UNEDUCATED ACTORS IN BOLSHIEV VAUDEVILLE AMUSE SIMPLE PEASANTS

(By Universal Service.)

MOSCOW, Sept. 14.—All of them over sixty years old and not one of them able to read or write!

This summarizes the qualifications of a group of Bolshiev theatrical performers, who are providing thrills in the dull provinces.

The new barn-stormers who were simple peasants before their stage debut had heard a lot of talk and propaganda about the cultural value of the theatre.

So they threw down their hay rakes rounded up a troupe of their own and started out.

They worked out their production

Where It Started

PINT MEASURE

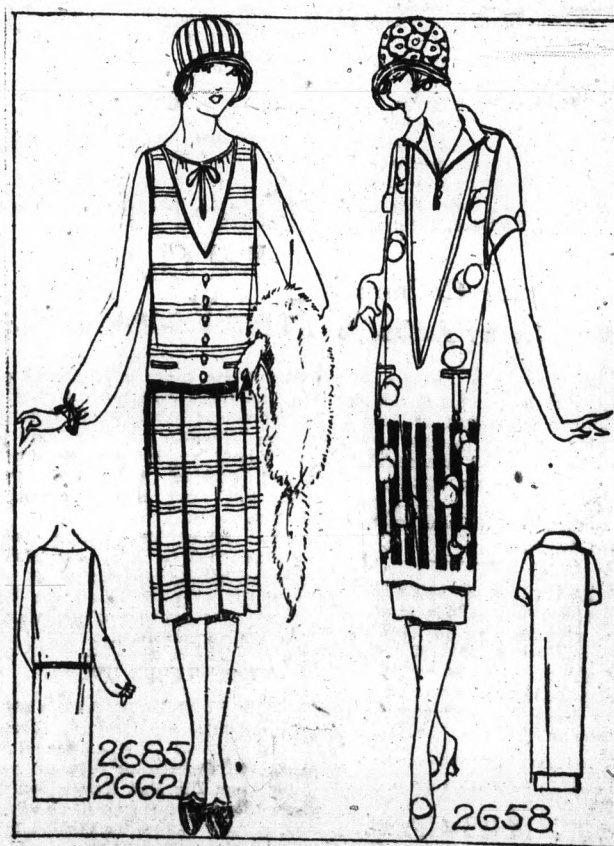

The pint was originally a pound, and the same word, pound, was used for both solid and liquid measure. In ancient Germany wine was sold by the pound, and in Rome by the libra (pound.) To make a distinction the word pint was invented. A pint no longer contains an exact pound of water, but about a pound and a quarter.

without help. The sketch is called "Novgorod Antiquities."

The audiences roaring, with laughter at the antics of the sexagenarians, find the title appropriate.

STYLES ADMITTEDLY SMART

The jumper skirt—what a smart style it is!—and yet how easy for home dress-makers to reproduce. As pictured to the left, it is developed in striped material, which may be flannel, silk or linen, combined with a blouse of tub silk. The model has a deep V-shaped opening in front and large armholes, the lower section being held in backward-turning plaits. Medium size requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch material. The blouse can be made from 2 yards of 36-inch silk.

The bordered silks could not be used to better advantage than in the second frock—a jumper model. If 54-inch material is employed for the overblouse, 1 1/2 yards will be sufficient, because one has the length of the blouse in the width of the material. For the underdress 2 3/4 yards of silk are required for medium size.

LAUGHS GALORE IN PICTURE AT LOCAL THEATER

The James Cruz-Paramount production, "Beggars on Horseback," at the California Theatre today is an even more successful picture than the Kaufman-Connelly piece was a stage play.

If you are one of those disillusioned ones who thinks there is nothing new in motion pictures, here's a good chance to prove yourself all wrong for once in your life.

"Beggars on Horseback" is the kind of a picture that'll make you want to stand right up and let out a whoop of joy.

If you've ever had a dream in your life, you'll recognize it in "Beggars on Horseback," which has to do with Neil McRae, a struggling young composer, who has his heart set on finishing a symphony, but who has to write orchestrations to keep from being thrown out into the street. Edward Everett Horton plays this role and Esther Ralston, remembered as the mother in "Peter Pan," is his across-the-hall sweetheart, equally poor and struggling equally as hard to make good. She is in love with McRae, who is too wrapped up in his work to notice anything or anyone. As the result of a dose of sleeping powders given him by his doctor friend, McRae dozes off and has a dream of dreams—a dream which proved a veritable nightmare of laughs for audiences at the California yesterday. A shummy-mad rich girl is introduced into the story with disastrous results—disastrous for McRae, who proposes to her on his doctor's say so and spends the rest of the picture trying to squirm out of the engagement.

Other features on the same program include "The Sky Jumper," an Earle Fox comedy; "Topics of the Day"; "Aesop's Fables"; Larry Canelo, at the organ.

Thrillers Planned For Merchant's Picnic Sept. 27

The Richmond Merchants Association held its semi-monthly meeting last night at St. Edmund's guild. Final arrangements for the employees picnic to be held at Alvarado park Sunday, September 27, were presented.

The various committees have worked hard and there is promise of a good time for all who attend. Otto Ludwig challenged C. C. Kratzer to a fat man's race which Kratzer accepted with the stipulation that the race be within the five mile limit.

Ben Malik stated that he would be on hand to do his three rounds of pugilistic activity with Ben Arntz, a well-known leather pusher, who works at Ward McCracken's.

A mutt and Jeff race was arranged between Miss Marie MacDonald Jensen, secretary of the association and Mrs. Helen Johnson, manager of the L. H. Schrader Co.

Frank Kettlehut will entertain the gathering with an oration, explaining the ancient and mystic meaning of the "Hole in the doughnut."

Several night battles between two large, ancient ships and a number of daylight encounters between Spanish and Moorish buccaneering craft are among the big scenes of "The Sea Hawk."

An entire Algerian village, with slave markets, four gigantic ships, two of them, rowed by galley slaves at the oars, an English castle and numerous large interior settings have been necessary to give "The Sea Hawk" a proper background, yet all of the massive settings and gorgeous wardrobe are merely incidental to the real bigness of the production, its dramatic action, which critics report to be the most spirited and thrilling ever seen on the screen.

"The Mad Rush" a Cameo comedy will be screened on the same program.

SAN FRANCISCO—Contract awarded at $8,100, for constructing two miles safety guard rail along Skyline Boulevard, south of here.

Story of Piracy Holds Sway at Richmond Theater

"The Sea Hawk," which is the feature at the Richmond Theatre today will continue its showing until Wednesday according to the announcement of the management today. Ever since its premier the Frank Lloyd-Frost National picture version of Sabatini's colorful story of sixteenth century piracy and romance has been greeted by enthusiastic capacity audiences, and it seems likely that before its showing is concluded "The Sea Hawk" will have established new motion picture history.

Milton Sills is seen as the principal male character of "The Sea Hawk," and in the large supporting cast are Enid Bennett, Marc MacDermott, Wallace Beery, Lloyd Hughes, Frank Currier, Wallace MacDonald, Hector V. Sarno, Claire du ald, William Collier, Jr.; Mme. Mada Brey, Lionel Belmore, Albert Prisco, Fred de Silva, Bobbie Bolder, Kathleen Key and many others well known to followers of the cinema.

The figures of the census will be sent to the office of County Superintendent William Hanlon at Martinez and later they will be sent to the state department of public instruction.

WASHINGTON STARS READY TO BATTLE

DERELICTS ARE STILL GAMING FOR KEYS SCALP

Once more Purman's Richmond Keys were unable to hold a romping raft of youngsters when they tangled with the Allendale Merchants, a club far out of their class, at Allendale Sunday. After Slim Nemith had been sammed till he was punch drunk the game ended 22 to 3—just as bad at the Allendales beat the Richmond Firemen early in the season. Don O'Loan caught most of Nemith's slants that the opposition didn't hit.

In spite of repeated reverses at the hands of other ball clubs, Book Agent Don O'Loan and other officials of the Keys refuse to heed the constant overtures of the Derelicts for a game.

Time and time again when manager and captain of the Derelicts challenged the Keys to an encounter they were told to "go out and get a reputation."

Now, however, the Derelicts have some hopes of getting a game. They have announced that they will meet the Keys any time or any place the Keys might select, and are so confident of victory they will even spot the self-styled city champions a few runs.

Motorcycle Climbing Contest on Sunday

The Oakland Motorcycle club will stage its annual hill-climbing tests next Sunday on the 76 per cent grade on Peralta Hill just east of San Pablo avenue near Stege Junction. Cash, cups and merchandise orders will be given for winners of these tests. Interest is so keen in the climb that it is expected that 20,000 fans will be on hand to see the cyclists perform.

TAILORS BEAT EL CERRITOS

Elmer Hansen's Schneider Tailors ball club defeated the El Cerrito Merchants at the First street ball park by a score of 8 to 3. The Tailors put three runs across in the first inning on hits by Carson, Hutton, Hansen and a double by Harry Bonham.

The Schneiders also scored a pair of runs in the second, one in the third and two in the sixth. El Cerrito made its only runs in an attempted rally in the ninth.

Bonham proved to be the star with the willow for the Schneiders, getting three hits, and two of those were doubles.

Carson, Hutton and Firoese were the other heavy hitters for the Tailors, each getting two cracks apiece.

Benson was the only member of the El Cerrito nine to get more than one hit.

Wharf No. 2 Negotiations Are Nearly Ended

was far too high, as the tideland where the city requires a third of an acre has been assessed at but $750 an acre.

Notice was served the company several months ago that the city would institute proceedings for the opening of the street to the new wharf in the event that the money holds to its price of $15,000.

If the plans and specifications for the wharf are approved by the city council next week, it is expected that bids for the work will be called for. If negotiations with the Ellis Land and Dock company are not completed by next Monday night the council may go right ahead and approve the plans and specifications as well as call for bids on the work, it was intimated last night.

Meanest Thief Is Still At Large

Police at a late hour last night had gained no information leading to the person who robbed the children's offering box of St. Edmund's Episcopal church of $2 in change last week. A vestment case was also stolen.

Investigation is found difficult at the time of the theft is not known, police declare. Rev. H. I. Oberholzer, pastor of the church, discovered the loss Sunday morning.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE MADE AT MARTEN'S BAKERY

Modern machinery has been installed and complete renovation effected in the Marten Bakery in Park place on the West Side, enabling the company to produce every kind of pastery and bread. The shop is featuring "Fruit-Ita-Nut" bread, a combination of fruit and nuts in bread that is becoming a popular tasty. Extensive publicity is being planned by Marten to advertise Fruit-Ita-Nut bread.

that a contract with them be rescinded.

Sargent charges in his complaint which was filed through his attorney, Tsar N. Calfee, that a Maxwell car, which he purchased from the company has been represented to him as a 1924 model, but that in reality it is a 1923 model.

School Bond Campaign Is Under Way

Johnston to all of the presidents of civic and community development organizations in the city inviting them to the meeting. At the meeting to be held on Thursday the presidents of the various organizations will be formed into an Executive Committee which will organize and conduct the campaign.

According to Wolf it will be the purpose of this committee to reach all of the qualified voters of the city with an accurate description of the type and need of the bonds. This is to be done through the establishment of a Speakers' Bureau, lantern slides, newspaper publicity and other means which will reach the voters.

The Board of Directors of the Richmond Merchants' Association yesterday endorsed the bond issue through the following resolution; which will be presented to the membership of the association at its next meeting on September 27:

WHEREAS the rapid development of Richmond and its contiguous territory has resulted in an overcrowding of the community's High School facilities until the present High School buildings and equipment are totally inadequate to provide properly for the students of the district, and

WHEREAS there is every indication that this community will in the future witness a growth even more rapid than it has experienced in the past, which growth will make it imperative that steps be taken to relieve the congestion in the High School, and

WHEREAS the Richmond Union High School District Board of Directors has called a bond election for October 6th, at which time the public will be asked to vote bonds in the sum of $885,000 to construct the first units of a new and badly needed High School,

NOW THEREFORE be it resolved by the Richmond Merchants Association that it endorse the proposed High School bond issue as vitally necessary in order to preserve the present high standards of efficiency in the High School facilities of the district and in order to provide for the needs of the district now and in the immediate future, and be it FURTHER RESOLVED that we heartily commend the proposed bond issue to the support of all citizens of Richmond and of the Richmond Union High School district, and urge that they give active support to the bond issue that it may be carried at the polls on October 6, 1925.

Col. Mitchell To Appear At Defense Quiz

almost treasonable conduct by the old guard military chiefs are responsible for the tragedies of the air and for the inferiority of the country's air defenses.

The Presidential Commission will meet here Thursday with President Coolidge. They will learn from the President his desire to "know the truth."

The President will give them carte blanche to conduct an unmuzzled inquiry, and it is expected that one of their first acts will be to request Mitchell to appear in person to substantiate his charges.

HOARD NAMED
The War Department today indicated that it will not stand in the way of Mitchell. In fact, it will defer his court-martial if necessary to allow him to appear as a witness before the Presidential Court of Inquiry.

The air probe developments followed each other with rapid pace. Secretary Wilbur appointed a special board, headed by Rear Admiral Hilary P. Jones, chief of the navy general board, to investigate the wreck of the Shenandoah with its appalling loss of life and property destruction.

Maj. Gen. Ernest Hinds, commander of the Eighth Corps Area, sent to the War Department a verbatim copy of Colonel Mitchell's sensational attack upon the old guard military chiefs.

It was placed in the hands of Maj. Gen. John L. Hines, chief of staff, who will submit it in routine to the judge advocate general for determination of whether Mitchell's statement will stand as a basis for court-martial proceedings against him.

MAY BE SECRET.
The Shenandoah probe will "supplement" the investigation to be made of the nation's status in the air, it was announced by the Navy Department, but its specific duty will be to determine the causes and conditions resulting in the destruction of the giant dirigible.

Whether this probe, like that to be conducted by the Presidential Commission, will be open to the public or held in the secrecy of star-chamber session, is a matter which Secretary Wilbur tonight left undetermined.

Admiral Jones, chief of the navy's probe committee, is senior member of the navy general board and has been commander-in-chief of the fleet. His high rank denotes the importance which the Government attaches to the probe.

NAVAL INQUIRERS
The other naval inquirers designated by Wilbur are Capt. Frank H. Clark, aide to Assistant Secretary Robinson; Capt. Lewis B. McBride of the naval construction corps, Commander Ralph C. Penoyer, Capt. Paul Foley, who is director of the experimental station at Bellevue, District of Columbia, and Lieutenant Commander M. R. Pierce.

Captain Foley will be the legal prosecutor for the court. Pierce will be his adviser. Towers is a naval aviator of twelve years' experience and was commander of the navy's trans-Atlantic flight in 1919.

Intrepid Flyers Will Be Feted Upon Arrival

der John Rodgers of the navy sea-plane PN-9 No. 1, will become assistant chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics whether he wants the job or not.

Although the aviator told Secretary Curtis Wilbur that he would prefer sea duty with airplanes to the important post, Wilbur today declared emphatically:

"Captain Rodgers has been given his orders and it is assumed that he will obey them."

In response to Secretary Wilbur's notice of his assignment to duty he replied:

"The crew of the PN-9 No. 1 thank you for your telegram and I appreciate the honor attached to my selection as assistant chief of the bureau of aeronautics."

"However, my personal wish is to remain on sea duty with airplanes, unless, in your opinion, my services will be more valuable in the department."

PB-1 MAY TRY SOON
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Everything is in readiness for the hop off of the PB-1 in its attempt of a Hawaiian Island non stop flight.

Everything has been held in readiness on the big plane pending the word from higher authority to start. Little hope is held out that this approval will be given before next Monday. Guard ships must return to their posts after their search for the PN-1.

The crew of the big Boeing plane is confident that they can make the hop without any great mishap. The additional carrying capacity of the plane as well as its greater speed is expected to assist it in reaching its goal.

High Valuation Is Placed On County Buildings

MARTINEZ, Sept. 14.—Figures released by County Auditor A. N. Sullenger today indicated that the court house, furnishings, jail and block of land belonging to Contra Costa county is worth $500,000 or $100,000 more than the purchase price of $340,000 in 1903.

Other county officials were of the opinion after seeing the auditors figures that the furnishings could not be duplicated for less than a million dollars.

The county auditor supplied figures showing the value of other county property to be as follows: County hospital buildings and grounds, $140,000; site for hall of records, $22,000; eight veterans' hall sites, $33,000; eight veterans' halls $200,000.

The auditor reported that the total outstanding bonds against the county is $2,161,000.

Home Construction Leads in Richmond Building Program

Sixty new buildings were started in Richmond during August, a gain of about 3 1-2 per cent over the same month a year ago, according to a report on applications for new water services here made public by the East Bay Water Company yesterday.

The greater proportion of building was homes and apartments, although a number of business blocks are now under construction.

In addition to the building development as indicated by water services the report shows that new people arrived in Richmond from the states of Washington and New Hampshire, and from San Francisco, Eureka and other California cities.

Development in Richmond was in line with an unusual month of growth throughout the East Bay district, in which a total of 1045 new structures were erected during the month and new families arrived from twenty-five states, fifty-six California cities and from South Africa, Peru, Japan and Panama.

Building Activities On Increase New Permits Indicate

Permits for the construction of buildings valued at $11,050 were issued yesterday by Building Inspector E. E. Grow. This is a record for one day's business in the inspector's office since July.

J. H. Plate will construct two cottages on Twenty-first street between Grant and Burbeck avenues. Each home will cost $3000. F. C. Hoeking is the contractor.

Mrs. M. L. Burnett will build a $4,000 home and garage on Roosevelt avenue between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets. Thomas Bolger is the contractor.

C. H. Bradshaw will build a $100 garage on Forty-first street between Potrero and State avenues.

Tandy and Theis will build a structure for storage purposes on Sixteenth street between Chanslor and Santa Fe avenues at a cost of $500.

George Olson will erect a private garage on Barrett avenue, between Twentieth and Twenty-first streets at a cost of $250.

Makes Pumping Up Tires Unnecessary

L. T. Hughes of 2516 Monroe, Chicago Ill., has perfected a new air-tight valve cap that enables auto owners to pump up their tires once and never touch them again until punctured or worn out. Leading tire manufacturers, after thorough tests, have approved Mr. Hughes' invention and banished the old theory that air escapes through rubber. One inflation lasts the life of a tire, and tire mileage is doubled. These caps retail for $1.25 for set of five. The inventor wants agents and will send proof and sample Free. Write him today.
